Coach Notes

A super way to end the season for us as it has been awhile since we have come out on top versus Garden County. Our inspired play started with our 8 seniors; Chance, Jose, Nick, Aaron, Zane, Tyler, Brandon, and Jake have worked extremely hard and have shown the type of leadership necessary to not only be successful, but to overcome adversity. Their hard work, perserverance, and will to win were keys all season long.

I felt we dominated this game physically in the trenches as attested by our 469 yards rushing, led by Chance's 232 yards on 17 carries, followed by Jose's 127 on 12 carries, Tanner's 70 on 12 carries, and Aaron's 36 on 12 carries. We also mixed a little passing success inwith Tyler grabbing two of Chance's tosses for 40 yards and a score.

Defensively, we were very stout up front led by Nick, James, and Brandon. We knew it would be difficult to completely stop their vaunted double wing attack, but we did a great job of holding them in check.

As previously stated, a super way to send our seniors out and create excitement for our underclassmen for next season. We, as coaches would like to thank the players, parents, fans and boosters, media, and all the support staff for their continued efforts in supporting Bobcat football.
